William L. LaBre, J.D., Chairman

June 29, 2012

TO: ALL COUNTY and DISTRICT CHAIRS
BOBBY SCHOSTAK, STATE CHAIR
RICHARD STUDLEY, President, Michigan Chamber of Commerce

RE: NOMINATION OF DEMOCRATIC JUDGE COLLEEN A. O'BRIEN TO SUPREME COURT

Greetings Colleagues and Republican Members of the Supreme Court:

I am taking this extraordinary step of writing to each of you within the Republican Party because of my concern that we do not nominate a Democrat at our own State Convention.

Michigan has a unique structure whereby the main political parties nominate persons to the non-partisan Supreme Court. In this way the People of Michigan have a clear choice between judges who view the law as a tool to effect whatever social change they desire, or who view the law as a mandate to be obeyed. For this reason the political choices which a candidate for the Supreme Court has previously made gives the clearest insight into what that candidate will do on the Bench.

I am enclosing for your review a series of public documents, going back almost twenty years, which show Judge O'Brien as having consistently contributed to the Democratic Party and attending Democratic events. There is no record of any contributions to the Republican Party. The enclosed documents are available on the Web for all to see.

A word of explanation of the documents may be helpful:

1.) As shown on the document with a large "X", and on Schedule A, in 1994 Judge O'Brien contributed to both the Democratic Party, and to the very liberal Democrat, Congressman Bob Carr in both his primary and general elections. Mr. Carr's enclosed biography, on page two, shows that, in 1994, he ran against our own Sen. Spence Abraham; that is the election to which she contributed.

2.) In her own 1998 filings for election with Michigan Secretary of State, she disclosed receiving a $500.00 contribution from the Teamsters 1038 PAC.

3.) In 2004, she contributed to the Committee to elect Fran Brennan Pontoni, a Democrat running for a Michigan House of Representatives seat.

4.) On October 6, 2009, Judge O'Brien made two contributions to the Oakland Democratic Party totally $250.00, and attended the Phil Hart Dinner featuring Congressman Barney Frank.

This eighteen (18) year history of contributions to democrats shows a long and consistent pattern. To paraphrase an old adage, "to find a person's heart, follow where they give their money". By contrast, Judge Markey has given more than ten thousand dollars to the Party and Republican candidates, and has been a fixture in the Party for almost twenty five years.

I've been the Cass County GOP Chair for sixteen years, and a practicing attorney for over thirty five years. My loyalty to the GOP, and my concern for the integrity of the judges of this State, impels me to bring to your attention, prior to the nomination of the Supreme Court Justices at the September Convention, this disturbing information: Without our knowledge, we are being asked to nominate a Democrat to the Supreme Court.

I will also frankly tell you that I have been a supporter of Judge Jane Markey, a true Republican, and a "rule of law" judge on the Court of Appeals since 1994. I disclose this support so that you know that the information which I am sending to you is not based on a "hidden agenda", but rather on my desire that you know the truth about the two leading candidates for one of the Supreme Court seats.

I will look forward to seeing many of you at the September Convention, and I want to thank you for your own service on behalf of the Republican Party.

Sincerely yours,

William L. LaBre, J.D., Chairman
Cass County Republican Party

Milton Robert Carr

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Milton Robert Carr, commonly known as Bob Carr, (born March 27, 1943) is a lawyer and politician from the U.S. state of Michigan.

Carr served in the U.S. House of Representatives from Michigan's 6th and 8th congressional districts for eight terms and one term, respectively. Carr's career in the U.S. House had a two-year hiatus in which he had lost his seat to Jim Dunn in 1980 before being reelected to Congress in 1982. Following his career in Congress, Carr became of counsel at a Washington, D.C.-based communications law firm in 2005. He is involved with the United States Association of Former Members of Congress, where he serves on the board of directors.

U.S. House career

Carr was elected as a Democrat from Michigan's 6th congressional district to the U.S. House for the 94th and to the two succeeding Congresses, serving from January 3, 1975 to January 3, 1981. He was an unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1980 to the 97th Congress, being defeated by Jim Dunn. Two years later, he defeated Dunn and was elected to the 98th and subsequently re-elected to the five succeeding Congresses, serving from January 3, 1983 to January 3, 1995. The last two years he represented Michigan's 8th congressional district after the redistricting in 1993. He was not a candidate for reelection in 1994, but was an unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate, losing to Spencer Abraham.

Carr began his career in Congress with a reputation as a rebel and self-described "angry young man." Shortly after his election in 1974, he called for the resignation of Democratic U.S. House Speaker Carl Albert. Carr later expressed public regret for his early attacks on the Congressional leadership and called them "sheer, naive stupidity." After taking office in 1975 Carr was named to the House Armed Services Committee, where he focused his attention on ending U.S. involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. On March 12, 1975 with the influential help of House Democratic Caucus Chairman Phillip Burton, Carr authored a resolution that passed the Caucus by 189-49 effectively cutting off further military assistance to South Vietnam or to Cambodia in fiscal year 1975.

After losing and regaining his seat in the 1980 and 1982 elections, respectively, he was named to the House Committee on Appropriations, lowered his profile and focused his attention on budget and spending issues. He became chairman of the Subcommittee on Transportation, where he pioneered the use of an economic based criteria and ranking system to earmarks requested by members of Congress for their districts.

Later career

In 2005 Carr became Of Counsel at DowLohnes PLLC, a communications law firm in Washington, DC where he works in the firm's Government Relations and Legislation practice as a lawyer and a lobbyist. He is a member of the board of directors of the United States Association of Former Members of Congress. He is married to Kate Carr, a foundation executive, and has one child, Alexandra Anne, a stepdaughter Jennifer Smith McCloskey, and a stepson Christopher Smith McCloskey.
